I'M WELL INSURED

When the fire bell sounds and the fire companies go racing to a fire, the man who can say "I'm well insured" has a sense of security that the other man who carries his own risks knows nothing about. Good insurance adds to the comfort of your sleep at night, and takes a worry from your day thoughts. I represent the very cream of insurance companies. Let me fix you up a policy that protects.

DEATHS TOTAL THIRTY-ONE

Heavy Rain Adds to Suffering of Victims of the Zephyr Cyclone---Money and Supplies Needed.

(Herald Special.)
Brownwood, Texas, June 1.—The total number of deaths to date, as a result of the Zephyr cyclone disaster, are thirty-one. A heavy rain descended upon the stricken town last night, adding to the suffering and distress of the people. Houses damaged are leaking, and the windows are out, and hundreds are homeless and exposed to the elements. Nurses, doctors, money and supplies are needed. Scores of Brownwood carpenters are busy today repairing the damaged houses, and erecting temporary shelter for those who have none.

LATE WASHINGTON NEWS AND READS TESTIFIES

New Two-Cent Stamp Was Issued By the Government Today—Other Notes of Interest.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—A new two-cent postage stamp to commemorate the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition was issued today. It is red in color and bears the likeness of Wm. H. Seward, who, as secretary of state, conducted the negotiations for the purchase of Alaska from Russia. His name appears under the portrait.

Coal Trust Trial.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—Today marks the expiration of the period allowed to counsel for the anthracite roads and coal companies to complete their testimony in the government suit to dissolve the so-called coal trust. The government has already completed its testimony, and argument in the suit will probably be heard by the court next autumn.

Gunboat For Lakes.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—As a gift from the navy department to the Illinois Naval Reserves, the gunboat Nashville, which made the first attack on the Spanish flag in 1898, is due to sail into Lake Michigan today. It is the first vessel of its kind to enter the great lakes.

To Retire Officers.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—Members of the naval board which will select officers below the grade of captain for compulsory retirement, met today to take up their work, and will report to President Taft about the first of next month.

Naval War College.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—With Rear Admiral John P. Merrell as the presiding officer, the summer conference of the Naval War College will begin today at Newport, R. I.

GOVERNOR SMILES GRIMLY.

Being Congratulated For Cutting the Appropriation Bill.

(Herald Special.)
Austin, Texas, June 1.—Governor Campbell has received many expressions of approval of his extensive cutting of the appropriation bill. He is not worrying one bit over the criticisms; in fact, he smiles. He is known grim, cynical smile when a criticism is offered.

New Bank Law.

(Herald Special.)
Sacramento, Cal., June 1.—California's new banking law, which provides almost absolute safeguards for depositors in the financial institutions of the state, becomes effective today.

Harriman Sails.

New York, June 1.—E. H. Harriman, American railway king, sailed today on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie for a two months' vacation in Europe.
